At the Theaters.
The ladies and children are especially pleased with a performance given by Bartholomew's trained horses at English's this week, and they are drawing large audiences. There will be performances every evening during the rest of the week and a special matinee on Saturday, all at cheap prices.
Mr. Max Lowenthal is in town arranging for the presentation of "Lights and Shadows" at the Grand the first part of next week. It is a story of New York life, and is set on the stage with entire new scenery and some very startling mechanical effects.

An Honorary Member Only.
The so-called Democratic club of veterans held a meeting in the Criminal court-room last night. An old soldier says that not one-half of those present were ever in the Union army. Nearly the entire session was taken up in discussing whether a colored man who had been a soldier and is a Democrat should be admitted to membership in the club. The ex-confederate element opposed his admission, and a compromise was finally reached by voting to permit him to become an honorary member only.

Street-Railway Changes.
The Citizens' Street-railway Company has abandoned the bit line and increased the number of cars on the Pennsylvania-street line to twelve, which is two more than the former number. There are also more cars running on the North Illinois-street line, some of which go to Crown Hill. The transfer car has been temporarily removed while Washington street is being improved.

Local News Notes.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to William H. Hill and Lauretta C. Ballard, Morton Carrigan and Cora Bunch, William Beeler and Hattie Graham, William H. Ragan and Ida May Dauner.

The following building permits were issued yesterday: J. P. Nadler, frame cottage, Ruckle street, near Tenth, $1,600; F. Rosenthal, improvements at No. 294 East Ohio street, $1,200; Lewark & Son, improvements at No. 350 South Illinois street, $50; James Craig, improvements at No. 315 North West street, $500.

Personal and Society.

Mrs. John Carey returned yesterday from a stay of several weeks at Potosi.

Sheriff W. Scott, clerk of Ross county, Ohio, is visiting his brother, Harry C. Scott.

Mrs. H. G. Carey and daughter, Mrs. Henry Jameson, have gone to Cincinnati to spend a few days.

Mrs. Nellie Scott, of Shelbyville, is spending a week here, the guest of Mr. James E. Robertson's family.

Mr. Byron S. Aldrich, of Port Byron, N. Y., is the guest of Maj. F. E. Marsh, 700 North Pennsylvania street.

Mrs. George H. West has gone to Cincinnati, having been called there by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Darling.

Gen. R. S. Foster is quite sick with inflammatory rheumatism, and is confined to his home on North New Jersey street.

Mrs. J. R. Tatman and Miss Lida Caubrey, of Shelbyville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Michener, 722 North Alabama street.

Mr. Arthur Jordan has purchased the residence of Mr. W. A. Krag, No. 729 North Meridian street, and, with his family, will take possession this week.

Wm. H. Hill, of Danbury, Conn., and Miss Lauretta C. Ballard were married last evening at the residence of the bride's brother, The Rev. Dr. Keen officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Hill have gone to Danbury, their future home.

Miss Flora Hanauer, of Cincinnati, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hays, of North New Jersey street, returns home this week. Tuesday evening a party was given to Miss Hanauer by Mrs. A. J. Kramer, at 259 East Market street.

Mr. W. A. Krag and family will leave on Monday for Omaha, for permanent residence. Mr. Krag has been one of this city's most successful business men, and, with his family, was prominent in church and social circles. Their removal is greatly regretted by all with whom they were associated.

There was a large attendance at the kindergarten given yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Daniel Stewart. Consequently, it was a financial success. The tea was a most palatable and beautifully served. The ladies of the section were divided, part acting as a reception committee and part in the dining-room, while others were at the candy and fancy-work tables. Mrs. Lynn, Mrs. Morrison, Miss Milford, Miss Millard, and Miss Maxwell took part in the musical programme.

The social circle of the First Baptist Church held its first tea for this season yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. George Jeffery, on North Pennsylvania street. The ladies of the entertaining section were Mrs. Jeffery, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Hesse and Houghton, Mrs. Hollenberry, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Dr. Morris, Mrs. C. P. Jacobs, Miss Seelye and Miss Hawn. There was a large attendance and a very enjoyable social time. Arrangements were made for the Y. M. C. A. luncheon, which these ladies will provide on Wednesday of next week, and assist, with other churches, on Saturday.

A large and elegant reception was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Fahney and Miss Annie Wilson, daughter of Hon. Jere M. Wilson, of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Fahney's beautiful home, No. 200 North Meridian street, which is full of rare and rich things, was decorated with a profusion of flowers, and the several corners of the rooms were filled with ferns and palms. The four ladies receiving the guests were handsomely attired. Miss Wilson wore an evening dress of light pink, a combined satin and cashmere exquisitely embroidered in pink pearls. Assistance in entertaining was given by Mrs. Fred Rush, Mrs. J. A. Lemcke, Mrs. John C. New, Mrs. John Coburn, Mrs. John Bradsh, Mrs. E. F. Claypool and Mrs. C. E. Merrifield. A large number of invitations were issued, and more than two hundred accepted and were present, among them being Mesdames Jones McLeod, C. L. Holstein, H. P. Wasson, M. J. Osgood, C. E. Coffin, H. P. Wetzel, Charles Raschig, A. B. Mansur, W. J. Holliday, W. W. Herod, H. L. Wilson, Lewis Carey, L. S. Ayres, Henry Frase, A. M. Robertson, A. Keifer, Charles Meyer, Jr., S. K. Fletcher, S. F. Gray, William Scott, G. M. Ballard, N. S. Byram, W. H. Cooke, Dixon, Dr. Abbott, V. T. Malin, Maxwell, W. F. Winchester, Hansen, H. G. Byram, A. J. Treat, Chas. Wood, T. G. Barry, John L. Wilson, Vawter, Albert Gall, G. W. Combs, Norris, Deitrich, E. F. Hines, W. F. Bingham, Thomas Bassett, Frost, of Boston; Miss Annie Porter, Arianne Holliday, Emily Bingham, Margaret Laird, Corinne Robbins, Donia Allen, Florence Stewart, Mariott, Leah Fletcher, Lizzie Herod, and others.

MARY-ANN-COBBES.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 10.—Mr. Charles Marvin, a prominent business man of Frankfort, was married at 4 o'clock this afternoon to Miss Hattie Coombs, of this city. The newly married couple left on the 5 o'clock train for an extended wedding trip.

He Went After a Burglar.

Mr. Davenport, a hardware dealer of Mankton, was awakened by a noise in his store yesterday morning about 4 o'clock. He got up and investigated the matter, and concluding it was the cat, went back to bed. Hearing the noise again, he started upon another tour of investigation and found himself locked out of the store-room. He braced himself against the door and burst it open just in time to see a burglar going out the front door with the money drawer under his arm. The burglar jumped into a buggy which was standing near the store and drove rapidly away, urged by a shot from Davenport's pistol. The entrance to the store had been made through the cellar door, and the amount secured was about seven dollars in small change.

THE COMMISSIONERS' FINDING.

Charges Against Captain Campbell Not Sustained.—Sergeant Dawson Reprimanded.

The Police Commissioners' investigation of the charges against Captain Campbell and Sergeant Dawson, preferred by Captain Colbert, was completed yesterday morning. There was but one additional witness examined, and he corroborated the testimony of Campbell and Dawson to the effect that Colbert used profane language while talking to Sergeant Dawson. Only an hour was consumed in the argument. Judge Norton and Judge Claypool spoke for the prosecution, and John S. Duncan for the defense. Judge Claypool admitted that nothing had been proven against Captain Campbell, but he held that the Chicago drummers made a studied attempt to bring about trouble with the men in the Democratic procession, and that Sergeant Dawson should have suppressed their enthusiasm. On the other hand, Mr. Duncan complimented the discreet action of Dawson. By his conduct he said the Sergeant quieted the crowd, and prevented any trouble that might have been brewing. At the conclusion of the argument the Commissioners went into executive session, and in a few minutes came to the following conclusions:

1. The charges against Captain Campbell are not sustained.

2. That portion of the charges against Sergeant Dawson, which charges him with releasing a prisoner under arrest by other officers, is not sustained.

3. We find Sergeant Dawson guilty of insubordination and improper language to his superior officer while on duty. For this offense, which is a grave one against discipline, we would inflict a severe penalty, but for the fact that the language used by the Sergeant was provoked by the excited language and manner of Captain Colbert. While this circumstance palliates the Sergeant's offense, it does not justify his conduct. He should have reported the circumstances instead of bandying words with his superior officer. We therefore reprimand Sergeant Charles F. Dawson for his unbecomingly conduct toward his superior officer.

This finding was signed by the full board. Sergeant Dawson says the result of the investigation could not have been more satisfactory to him. He knew he was not warranted in using insulting language to a superior officer, and would not have done so had he not been provoked to it by Colbert's speech to him. The differences between Colbert, Campbell and Dawson will probably not be brought before the board by any further proceedings, but there is a possibility that the extra patrolman, Brennan, may be called upon to explain his conduct toward Mr. Burdall.

Some of Gapsen's Remarks.

Trustee Gapsen yesterday remarked that he brought about Dr. Kite's dismissal as the Superintendent's secretary and time-keeper at the Insane Hospital. "I wanted it done more than a year ago," said Trustee Gapsen, "but he was kept in place."

"What do you think of his affidavit?" the reporter inquired.

"The other fellows have got what they deserved for keeping him there. I am a business man, and like to deal with business men. What can one expect when he has a jack-in-the-box on one side of him and a jackass doctor on the other?"

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritive food. Bread, biscuits, muffins, cake, etc., raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof. H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported:

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government."

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public."
